Art Therapy for Healing: Inspiration Boxes

The Oncology Center at St. Joseph Hospital Presents

Inspiration Box

Wednesday,
June 6
6:00 to 8:00 PM

Location:
The Oncology Center at
St. Joseph Hospital

For Cancer Patients and their Families. Creativity is key to meeting life's challenges and is a natural part of wellness. The creative process is a gift to ourselves, even if the product is for someone else. Learn and practice simple techniques for creating your unique and personal Inspiration Box. No artistic experience or talent needed! This program is FREE. Supplies will be provided; however, pre-registration is required.

Please call Cindy Arcieri at (603) 595-3608 to reserve your space today, or register online at ww.st.josephhospital.com!

This program is financially supported by Against All Odds, Inc., a support agency for cancer patients, survivors and their families. For more information about Against All Odds, Inc., call (603) 880.4118 or visit them online at www.againstallodds.org.
